

Umeå School of Business and Economics
Umeå University, SE-901 87 Umeå, Sweden
Phone: +46 90 786 51 92.
E-mail: stina.kalen@umu.se
www.usbe.umu.se

Curriculum vitae – Stina Kalén

Current position

Doctoral student

2021 – ongoing

Department of Economics, Umeå School of Business, Economics and Statistics, Umeå University

Main research field: Environmental economics

Main supervisor: Professor Thomas Aronsson

Education

Master's Degree in Economics (120 ECTS)

2018 - 2020

Umeå University

Master thesis I: Greenest kid on the block: A latent class analysis of social nudges and electricity conservation (2019)

Master thesis II: Greens for green: A study on willingness to pay for green impure public goods (2020)

Bachelor's degree in Political Science (180 ECTS)

2015 - 2018

Umeå University

Specialization : Economics, 90 ECTS.

Bachelors thesis: Globaliseringens effekt på Phillipskurvan: - Det utländska produktionsgapets betydelse för den svenska inflationsprocessen (2018)

Previous work experience

Research engineer

Aug 2020 – Jan 2021

Luleå Tekniska Universitet, Department of Social Sciences, Technology and Arts.

Research assistant

Umeå Universitet, Department of Economics.

Oct 2018- Feb 2019

Internship

Expertgruppen för studier i ekonomi (ESO), Ministry of Finance.

Aug 2017 – Jan 2018

Scientific and societal impact of research – conferences and seminars

Presenter at CERE 10 years, Umeå.

Nov 28 2019

Title of presentation: “Nudging and electricity conservation”,

Additional qualifications

Language

Swedish (mother tongue), English and Norwegian (professional)

Computer software

MS office, Stata.